

Archdiocese of San Antonio statement regarding Governor Greg Abbott announcement on March 2 of new executive order

The Archdiocese of San Antonio is currently studying the executive order of Governor Greg Abbott which is set to take effect on March 10. The archdiocese will be in communication with pastors, school personnel, and employees as archdiocesan policies impact parishes, Catholic schools, and our business operations. The archdiocese will also obtain input from local officials and health authorities. The archdiocese is concerned most importantly with the health of everyone in our area as well as the state of Texas.
