

Dear [Donor Name]

The Easter season begins in the early, cooler days of spring. And as the sun begins to warm and the flowers begin to bloom, our faith begins to grow stronger with each day of the season. Easter Sunday is just the start, as we are led on a long journey of renewed hope, of new life, and of new beginnings.

We're about to celebrate Easter Sunday in the life of the Church; the day we commemorate Christ's resurrection from the dead. It is truly the most important day in our Christian Calendar when we stand as victors with Christ. Because He lives, we also live. We have hope in our future and joy in our present salvation. And it is because of Jesus' sacrificial death and victorious resurrection that we can invite the Risen Christ to live in our hearts.

Everyone we meet has this same potential, everyone we meet can have the light of Christ within them. Instead of judging them, we need to reach out to them with love and compassion. With so much in our world that often brings us worry, Easter helps us see the light that often goes dim not only in our own lives but also for those around us. This light we feel during the Easter season is what can lead us to overcome each challenge in life, no matter how big or small.

It is during the Easter season your generosity gives hope to others and strengthens our entire Catholic community.

Many of you have signed up for online giving with us. I thank you as this option reduces costs for our parish and improves our ability to prepare our budget. Your generous response is crucial to the financial stability of the parish.

The Lenten season is focusing on preparation for Easter. Hopefully you were able to take advantage of these few weeks to reflect on your spiritual life. Prayer and quiet meditation is an excellent way to center our lives at the end of a hectic work or school day. Some families find praying together to be essential to feeling closer to God and each other. Speak to your children and loved ones about ways they can pray for you and then return the favor for them.

All Catholics around the world listen to the same gospel each day. This reminds us that we are part of a faith community larger than just our families, parish or even country.

Keep that in mind as you work on your own faith during this time. We belong to something much larger than ourselves.

Thank you for your support, and prayers. We look forward to seeing you!

Alleluia!

Jesus told Martha, “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and anyone who lives and believes in me will never die.”
John 11:25-27

Through the joy of the Resurrection, we realize that Jesus Christ came to teach us about the Kingdom of Heaven, so that He can raise us from the death we are in. Let us put into practice the teachings of Christ so that we can continue knowing God, loving him, serving and praising Him. By doing so, Jesus guarantees us everlasting life after our physical death.

We hope you enjoyed a blessed Easter Sunday, and look forward to continued celebration of the upcoming Easter season with you!

If you haven't yet made an Easter offering and would like to, we offer you a convenient and secure way to easily make an online donation through your GiveCentral profile. No need to log into your account, simply select an option below to proceed:
