

ULTIMATE ROCK, PAPER, SCISSORS

This game is played like regular Rock, Paper, Scissors with an added twist. Invite the teens to pair up for a game of Rock, Paper, Scissors. The person that loses the round will go cheer on the winner as they pair up with someone else for another round. The game will continue until there are two teens left facing each other and one person is declared the winner.

Rules for the game:

Rock beats scissors by crushing it.

Scissors beats paper by cutting it.

Paper beats rock by covering it.
