❖ If you are presently in a non-Catholic union and seeking to be married in the Catholic Church (convalidation), is your consent to this convalidation an act of the will by which you intend to enter into a valid Catholic marriage? (c. 1157)..... Yes No*

- A Catholic who exchanges marital vows in any non-Catholic ceremony without a dispensation from canonical form is not married validly in the eyes of the Catholic Church and is not able to receive the Sacraments licitly.
- The Church is not ‘blessing’ this union. A valid marriage begins with the Catholic marriage ceremony (convalidation).

Date of present non-Catholic union: _____ Attach a copy of that civil marriage license.

❖ How many times were you married before and it ended in divorce, civil annulment or death of the previous spouse? _____
 List name(s) of previous spouse(s); name of church(s) or place(s) of marriage ceremony—city/state; title of officiant(s); date(s).

→ Explain how the groom is free to marry in the Catholic Church. (Without a death certificate and/or decree of nullity/dissolution issued only by the Catholic Church, one cannot marry in the Catholic Church.)

- Former spouse is deceased. Attach a copy of the death certificate.
- For every failed marriage: Attach a decree of nullity for: Formal Case; Prior Bond; Lack of Canonical Form or Other.
 OR attach a decree of dissolution for: Pauline Privilege; Privilege of the Faith or Rátum et non consummátum.

Name of (arch)diocese that issued the decree: _____
 Protocol number and date of the Catholic decree: _____

NOTE: No provisional date for a marriage ceremony may be set until the final Decree(s) of Nullity/Dissolution is obtained. Indicate how compliance with any Tribunal stipulations occurred prior to any marriage ceremony (c. 1684).

- + When a Catholic marries a non-Catholic, either non-baptized or baptized non-Catholic, the Catholic must make the following declaration and promise so that a dispensation from disparity of worship/cult (c. 1086, §2) or a permission for a Catholic to marry a baptized non-Catholic (c. 1124) will be granted by the local ordinary or his delegate:
 - I reaffirm my faith in Jesus Christ and with God’s help I intend to continue living that faith in the Catholic Church. (c. 1125, 1°)
 - I promise to do all in my power to share the faith I have received with our children by having them baptized and reared as Catholics. (c. 1125, 1°)

The above declaration and promise is to be completed and signed on the (Arch) Diocesan Petition for a Canonical Dispensation or Permission for a Mixed Marriage.

REFERENCE GUIDE: Always contact the Tribunal/Chancery with any questions!

Brief Definitions of Marriage Impediments (cc. 1083-1094)

Divine Natural Law Impediments that no dispensation may be granted by anyone, neither Rome nor a diocesan bishop:

Impotence (c. 1084, §1): Antecedent and perpetual incapacity of groom/bride to perform a complete conjugal act (marital sexual intercourse). Sterility (the inability to impregnate or to conceive) is not an impediment (c. 1084, §3).

Prior Bond (Ligamen c. 1085): A person with a presumably valid prior bond cannot marry again as long as the first spouse is living. If a Catholic decree of declaration of nullity is granted by a Catholic Tribunal, then one is free to marry. But it is a decree of nullity, not a dispensation.

Consanguinity (blood relationships c. 1091): One can never marry in the direct line any ancestor and descendant, both legitimate and natural (grandparent, parent, child, grandchild) or in the second degree of the collateral line (brother and sister) (c. 1078, §3).

Ecclesiastical Law Impediments that a diocesan bishop or other local ordinary may dispense (c. 1078, §1):

Age (c. 1083)—Males must be 16 years old; females must be 14 years old. The day of birth is not computed in the age.

One completes the 16th or 14th year at the close of the day (midnight) on one's birthday (c. 203).

Disparity of Worship/Cult (c. 1086): A marriage between a Catholic and a non-baptized person.

Perpetual Vow of Chastity (c. 1088): Must petition diocesan bishop if the person is a member of a diocesan right institute.

If it is a pontifical right institute, see below for impediments that only Holy See may dispense.

Abduction (c. 1089): A marriage between a man and a woman whom he abducts or detains in order to marry.

Consanguinity (blood relationships c. 1091): Although a dispensation can be granted for the third degree (uncle/niece; aunt/nephew) and for the fourth degree (first cousins) in the collateral line to marry, they cannot secure legally a marriage license in Texas. But if a couple is in a civilly, recognized marital union and desire to marry (convalidation), a dispensation may be granted.

Affinity (relationships from a valid marriage, death or dissolution of bond, c. 1092): One cannot marry in the direct line in any degree (marrying a deceased/dissolved spouse's grandparent, parent or spouse's child or grandchild from a different relationship).

Public Propriety (c. 1093): If after an invalid marriage or public concubinage (cohabitation), a man cannot marry a woman's mother or her daughter from a different relationship OR a woman cannot marry a man's father or his son from a different relationship.

Adoption (c. 1094): An adopted person cannot marry his/her adopted grandparents, parents or siblings.

Ecclesiastical Law Impediments that only the Holy See may dispense:

Sacred Orders (c. 1087): Must petition Rome for a Dispensation from Obligations Arising from Sacred Order of Presbyterate or Diaconate, including that from Celibacy (c. 1078, §2, 1°).

Perpetual Vow of Chastity (c. 1088): Must petition Rome if the person is a member of a pontifical right institute (c. 1078, §2, 1°).

Crime (c. 1090): One kills one's own spouse to marry another person or one kills the spouse of an intended spouse so as to marry that person. OR if two people conspire to bring about the death of the spouse of one of them for any reason, they invalidly attempt marriage together (c. 1078, §2, 2°).

Other Important Information

→If the groom and/or bride are a Catholic Rite other than Latin, contact the Tribunal/Chancery.

→Secure any permission/dispensation from the Catholic bishop in whose diocese the Catholic groom/bride lives, regardless of where the marriage ceremony will occur.

- If a Catholic is marrying a non-baptized person, secure a dispensation from disparity of worship/cult (c. 1086, §2).
- If a Catholic is marrying a baptized non-Catholic, secure a permission for a Catholic to marry a baptized non-Catholic (c.1124).
- If a Catholic will be married by a non-Catholic officiant, secure a dispensation from canonical form (c. 1127, §2).

→If officiating at a marriage of a Catholic who is not a parishioner, secure permission from the Catholic's proper pastor (cc.1115; 1118,§1).

→Assigned parish priest/deacon normally has the faculty to officiate at any marriage ceremony within one's parish territory.

If officiating at a marriage outside your assigned parish, secure delegation from that pastor or local ordinary (c.1111; also cf. c.137).

→Secure a recent Baptismal or Profession of Faith (POF) certificate (issued within the last 6 months, with any sacramental notations listed on the back) for the Catholic.

→Secure proof of baptism (Baptismal certificate, letter from minister or witness) for a baptized non-Catholic.

→Secure if required Witness Affidavits of Freedom to Marry for the groom and for the bride.

→Importance of reception of all three sacraments of initiation prior to marriage: Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. c. 842, §2.

- Confirmation prior to marriage highly encouraged if possible, though not required (c. 1065, §1).
- Encouraged to receive Eucharist and Penance regularly (c. 1065, §2).
- A valid marriage is a sacrament when both spouses are baptized validly. A valid marriage between a baptized person and a non-baptized person (or between two non-baptized persons) is not sacrament. (c. 1055, §2)

→Types of marriage ceremonies (cc. 1119; 846, §1) from the Rite of Marriage (©1969):

- Rite of Celebrating Marriage during Mass #8, 19-38 (Normally for 2 Catholics; may occur for a Catholic and a baptized, non-Catholic, provided "except that, according to the general law, communion is not given to the non-Catholic." #8; cf. c.844, §§3-4).
- Rite of Celebrating Marriage Outside Mass #8, 39-54 (Normally for a Catholic and a baptized non-Catholic).
- Rite of Celebrating Marriage Between a Catholic and an Unbaptized Person #8, 55-66 (Only rite to be used for unbaptized).

→Marriage file is stored normally in the parish where the marriage ceremony with canonical form occurred (c. 1121, §1).

Canonical form=Canon 1108: marrying before a Catholic priest or deacon and two witnesses.

→Marriage file is stored in the parish where the pre-nuptial investigation and the request for the dispensation from canonical form occurred when a marriage ceremony occurred without canonical form (c. 1121, §3).

→If the marriage ceremony is to occur outside your diocese, this marriage file is to be sent to your Tribunal/Chancery.

PASTORAL GUIDELINES FOR MARRIAGE PREPARATION

MARRIAGE PREPARATION IS A VITAL REQUIREMENT FOR THE CELEBRATION OF MARRIAGE. SOME OF THE STRUCTURED FORMS SUCH AS SPONSOR COUPLES, ENGAGED ENCOUNTER, PRE-CANA AND OTHERS, ADDRESS THE MANY CONCERNS OF MARRIAGE. WHERE THESE ARE NOT AVAILABLE OR WHERE THERE IS A NEED TO AUGMENT A PARTICULAR PROGRAM, THE ONE WHO IS PREPARING A COUPLE FOR MARRIAGE MAY FIND THIS GUIDELINE AS AN AID IN THAT PREPARATION.

PHASE ONE

I. ESTABLISHING A RELATIONSHIP WITH THE COUPLE

The Church cares about you and wants your married life to be happy. Your decision is one of the most important decisions you'll ever make. This is why there needs to be sufficient and unhurried time allowed to prepare well. I am happy to spend this time with you in preparing not just for your wedding but for your whole married life.

- 1. Tell me about yourselves. What are your families like?
2. How long have you been dating? When were you engaged? Where did you meet? What attracted you to each other?
3. How does your family feel about your intentions to marry?
4. Why do you wish to be married in or through the Catholic Church?
5. Are each of you close to your family emotionally? How difficult will it be to live a great distance from them? Are you independent now?
6. Are your parents ready for you to leave home?
7. Do you accept your relationships with each other's family?
8. What are your plans for the first year of marriage? Where will you live? What type of work will you do?
9. What would you like your marriage to be like 25 years from now? 50 years?
10. Do you have any questions?

COMMENTS: _____

II. REQUIREMENTS EXPLAINED

If there are no impediments or obvious problems to warrant delaying the wedding far beyond the desired date, then explain what is required of the couple.

- 1. Another initial session with the priest.
2. Secure needed documents.
3. Primary Marriage Preparation (PMP) requirements/to be completed 2 to 3 months before wedding.
4. Two or Three final sessions to complete assessment and plan liturgy.

III. A PRE-MARITAL INVENTORY or assessment tool may be administered at this time to aid in the assessment or instructional phase of preparation.

IV. TENTATIVE or PROVISIONAL DATE OF WEDDING

Only at this point is the Church calendar checked for available date. It should be clear that a final commitment to this date CANNOT be made until the final phase with the couple.

PHASE TWO

I. SHARE the RESULTS of the Pre-Marital Inventory or other instrument (if one has been administered in the first phase), and use it gently to point out areas of strength and areas of weakness.

II. AN INSTRUCTION, with dialogue, on the THEOLOGY OF MARRIAGE: Treating with biblical background:

- Marriage as a covenant relationship,
Marriage as a sacrament,
The signs of the marriage covenant,
Covenant virtues: fidelity/faithfulness,
permanence/lasting love,
children/fruitfulness.

III. PRESENT RELIGIOUS INVOLVEMENT

1. Tell me about your involvement in your church, synagogue, or mosque?
2. How does religion influence your present relationship?
3. Do you attend church regularly and receive the sacraments? How regularly?
4. What role will religious values have in your marriage relationship? Do you anticipate any difficulties in this regard? How can the Church help you? How will you as a couple be involved in the Church? or your Churches?
5. Have you made any decisions in regard to the religious upbringing of your children?

COMMENTS: _____

IV. The VARIOUS kinds of PRIMARY MARRIAGE PREPARATION available are explained, and the couple discusses how they can begin the instructional phase. (See Sec. IV of the Marriage Guidelines for Dioceses of the State of Texas—MGST.)
 Name of Sponsor Couple: _____
 (Here the requirements as in II-2, 3, and 4 of Phase I above, may be repeated.)

PHASE THREE

(This phase is suggested if no other Marriage Preparation Course is used)

I. CONSIDERATIONS OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITY AND FINANCES

1. Are both of you working at the moment? How long have you been working at your present job(s)? What are your future plans? How do you feel about each other's job? Have you ever had problems with employment or holding a job?
2. Do you know how much each other earns? Are you aware of how much money the two of you have saved? Aware of each other's debts? Do you spend wisely?
3. Have you discussed your feelings about both of you working, about sharing chores in the home, about the relationship between your home life and work, about the possibility of taking on too much responsibility early in your marriage?
4. Is schooling in your plans for the beginning of your marriage? Who will be the support in the beginning of your marriage? Groom? Bride? Both? Parents?
5. Have you figured out how much it costs to get married? How much for living expenses? How will you plan your budget? For two people? For three people?
6. Do you often speak about your future home? Future recreational expenses? Who is going to run the house, organize things?

COMMENTS: _____

II. MUTUAL COMMITMENT AND COMMUNICATION

1. What are your feelings about the home in which you were raised? What kind of home life would you like to create for yourselves? Would you know a couple that has what you would consider a very good marriage?
2. How were differences of opinion or quarrels solved by your parents? How do you solve them?
3. What are some signs that your future spouse understands and accepts you as you are?
4. Are you aware of any cultural or ethnic differences between you? Do you see ways it could affect your marriage relationship? Are there any resentments?
5. Do you usually share what you think and feel? With ease or difficulty?
6. Are there times when it is difficult to communicate with each other? Explain.
7. How do you handle anger, jealousy, irritation, impatience with each other?
8. Would there ever be a time when you would place someone before your spouse? When? How do you think your spouse would respond?
9. How do you think you would feel if your spouse put someone else before you?
10. Do you have any feelings about attending a retreat for marriage enrichment periodically? In the event of a serious problem, how would you feel about going to a counselor?

COMMENTS: _____

III. SEXUALITY AND PARENTHOOD

1. How do you feel about discussing sexual matters between the two of you? Were you comfortable discussing these matters during the Marriage Preparation sessions?
2. Are there any questions you would still like to discuss further with each other, with a priest, with a married couple, or a doctor?
3. What do you feel your sexual relationship will mean to your marriage?
4. What is your attitude about having children in the years to come? How many children would you like to have?
5. How do you understand the church's teaching on birth control? Are you aware of Natural Family Planning?
6. How do you plan to share the responsibilities of parenting?
7. If there are children from a previous marriage, have you frankly discussed your feelings toward them?...how they might affect your marriage in the years to come.

FINAL PHASE

I. FINAL ASSESSMENT: DATE OF WEDDING _____ TIME OF WEDDING _____

If, after these follow-up interviews, the Pastor, or delegated representative, is unable to reach a conclusive assessment regarding the readiness of the couple for marriage, he should seek immediate consultation with qualified resource personnel, including medical or psychological expertise, if such seems appropriate. —Marriage Guidelines of the State of Texas, Section III.

II. CHECK that all necessary documents and dispensations are secured: (See envelope)

III. PLANNING THE WEDDING LITURGY

1. Discuss the wedding liturgy and present the options available.
2. Arrange for the rehearsal and what will be expected of the couple and what will happen at that time.
3. Encourage them and the wedding party to participate in the Sacrament of Reconciliation at some time before the rehearsal.
4. Discuss parish policies, reserving reception facilities, etc.
5. BE SURE ALL NECESSARY INFORMATION IS FILLED OUT ON THE ENVELOPE FOR PERMANENT RECORD.
